THE CASELOAD REPORT

In 1986 the disciplinary caseload reached an all time high. The caseload of the Administrator, the Inquiry, Hearing and Review Board and the disciplinary matters in the Supreme Court in 1986 are presented in the first four charts that follow. The fifth chart compares certain factors which confirm the dramatic increase in disciplinary cases.

In the area of non-disciplinary litigation, during 1986 staff lawyers represented the Commission and Administrator in non-disciplinary matters in the United States Supreme Court, the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit, the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, the Supreme Court of Illinois, the Appellate Court of Illinois, the Circuit Court and administrative agencies.

Each of the charges docketed in the Administrator's office during 1986 was classified as to the area of law (Appendix E, Chart 6) and the violation alleged (Appendix E, Chart 7). The information for the classification as to type of matter and type of misconduct charged is obtained from the charge at the time it is received in the Administrator's office before the truth and accuracy of the charge has been investigated or established.

Chart 1 - Investigations and Inquiry

During 1986 the Administrator initiated 4535 investigations. During the year 3373 investigations were terminated. The investigations contained 4159 charges which were investigated and closed or dismissed. In addition, the Inquiry Board investigated 1313 charges which resulted in the voting of 219 complaints.

STATEMENT OF ACTIVITIES RELATED TO "OPERATION GREYLORD"

In July, 1977 a representative of the United States Attorney for the Northern District of Illinois and other officials met with the Administrator and counsel. The Administrator was advised that the United States Attorney and the Federal Bureau of Investigation were about to commence an undercover investigation of alleged corruption within the Circuit Court of Cook County.

After discussion, the Administrator represented that he would cooperate with the federal investigation. The federal authorities represented that they would maintain information regarding attorney misconduct and turn it over to the Administrator at appropriate times.

In 1979, in an unrelated matter, the Administrator initiated an investigation of solicitation of legal business by lawyers in the corridors and courtrooms of the Circuit Court of Cook County. The entire investigative resources of the Commission were committed to monitoring activities in the Circuit Court of Cook County for several weeks in 1980. During the investigation, Commission investigators came in contact with Internal Revenue Service agents who were also investigating. Communication between the agencies continued for many months.

During that time Commission investigators obtained and reviewed computerized bond refund records and identified attorneys who received an inordinately large number of bond refunds. The records reviewed by the Administrator revealed that attorneys receiving a large number of bond refunds were generating substantial income. The Administrator determined to defer to the greater resources and jurisdiction of the IRS which was actively investigating the matters. In that regard, the Administrator turned over to IRS much information, including primary records regarding bond refunds.

Following the announcement of Operation Greylord indictments and during the criminal trials, the Administrator monitored the proceedings by initiating appropriate investigations of attorneys named. As attorneys and judges were convicted of crimes, the Administrator initiated summary procedures in the Supreme Court of Illinois to secure suspension or disbarment.

Following disclosures in open court of misconduct by attorneys, especially in connection with the case of United States v. Holzer, sentiment was expressed for prompt disciplinary prosecution of the attorneys involved. The staff's analysis of the information received from the U.S. Attorney however, indicated that disciplinary prosecution based on the record of trial testimony was premature. The staff, therefore, with the cooperation of the U.S. Attorney, has sought and received grand jury material by court order in several matters. (see Appendix D) The grand jury material and the further investigation conducted by the Administrator has resulted in more complete disciplinary prosecutions.

As of the date of this report, 30 attorneys or judges convicted or implicated in Operation Greylord proceedings have been disbarred or suspended. In addition, 27 formal disciplinary proceedings pend before the Hearing or Review Board or the Court arising from testimony or disclosures made in connection with Operation Greylord proceedings.

REPORT ON NON-DISCIPLINARY LITIGATION

Staff attorneys represent the Commission, staff, or members of the various boards in a variety of matters generally resulting from disciplinary prosecutions. Most matters involve the defense of a suit challenging the authority of the Commission or seeking injunctive relief or damages allegedly caused by disciplinary decisions. In addition, the staff continued to provide investigative and legal assistance to the Committee on Character and Fitness of the Supreme Court on Illinois.

Appendix D is a listing of all miscellaneous matters pending during 1986. The following matters are noteworthy.

The Chicago Bar Association, et al. v. Cronson, No. 82 L 50131 (Cir.Ct. Cook Co.). On July 26, 1982 the Chicago Bar Association filed suit in the Circuit Court of Cook County against the Commission, the State Board of Law Examiners and the Auditor General of the State of Illinois seeking declaratory review of the nature of the Commission and the State Board and of the authority of the Auditor General to audit the funds of those agencies. On March 4, 1984 the Commission was realigned as a party plaintiff. On April 21, 1987 Judge David J. Shields found that the Auditor General was not entitled to audit the funds collected by the Commission and Board and entered summary judgment in favor of the Commission and other plaintiffs. Judge Shields stayed the judgment for 30 days to afford the parties time to consider an appeal.

Adams v. Attorney Registration and Disciplinary Commission, 801 F.2d 968 (7th Cir.1986). On April 25, 1984 Robert J. Adams, Jr. and other attorneys filed a lawsuit in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois seeking to enjoin the Commission from enforcing Rule 2-103(b)(2) of the Illinois Code of Professional Responsibility to the extent it prohibited the mailing of written communications offering professional services to those known to need those services.

On August 15, 1985 Judge James B. Moran issued a preliminary injunction against the Commission. On September 18, 1986 the Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit upheld the preliminary injunction against the Commission. The matter is pending before the District Court.

Ettinger v. Rolewick, 140 Ill.App.3d 295, 488 N.E.2d 598 (1st Dist. 1986). On August 27, 1984 Michael D. Ettinger filed a complaint in the Circuit Court of Cook County seeking to enjoin the Commission from utilizing in disciplinary proceedings certain evidence in a federal criminal prosecution of him. The Commission filed a motion to dismiss asserting, among other bases, a lack of jurisdiction. On October 16, 1984 the trial court entered an order finding it had jurisdiction, but sustaining the Commission's motion to dismiss. Ettinger appealed the decision.

On January 7, 1986 the Appellate Court of Illinois held that the inherent nature of attorney disciplinary proceedings precluded the circuit court from asserting jurisdiction over the subject matter. On June 3, 1986 the Supreme Court denied Ettinger's petition for leave to appeal.

REPORT ON REGISTRATION

On October 31, 1986 the Master Roll of Attorneys contained the names of 49177 attorneys in the following categories:

CATEGORIES	NUMBER

TOTAL	49177

The distribution of those attorneys who reside, practice or are employed in Illinois in the state's twenty one judicial circuits and five judicial districts is contained in Appendix A of this report.

Appendix B of this report reflects the distribution in the counties of Illinois of the principal business offices of those attorneys who designated an in-state business address on their 1986 registration application.

REPORT ON FISCAL 1986

The Commission approved the fiscal 1986 budget in December 1985. The budget provided funds to complete an office expansion in Chicago, to obtain a new office in Springfield, and to expand the legal staff by four lawyers. The expansion was mandated by the Commission to meet the growing caseload and to monitor the Operation Greylord investigations and prosecutions. The expansion was completed.

Pursuant to the Commission's agreement relating to Operation Greylord with the U.S. Attorney and as a result of subpoenas issued by the Commission, grand jury materials, documents and evidence began to arrive in the office commencing in October 1985. By the end of the trial of United States v. Holzer in February, 1986 it was apparent to the Court, Commission and staff that the number of disciplinary investigations and prosecutions would be greater than anyone anticipated.

The concern of the Court and Commission, along with the public outcry for discipline of judges and lawyers resulting from the disclosures of corruption, made it necessary to reorganize the staff and expend more funds than were budgeted. Five lawyers were assigned exclusively to investigate and prosecute the Greylord cases. Five additional lawyers were hired to replace the lawyers assigned to Greylord. Also hired were necessary additional support staff. Most of the additional staff was hired in May and June 1986.

The hiring of additional personnel created problems. The most obvious was the shortage of space, furniture, meeting rooms, supplies, and computer terminals. Several computer terminals were added and that resulted in the capacity of the computer being reached. The capacity of the telephone system was also reached, and both the computer and the phone system were upgraded.

As a result, in mid-1986 the Commission realized that additional funds would be necessary for 1987 to enable the Commission to continue its work at a crucial time. The Commission submitted the following fee schedule to the Court:

Classification	1986 Registration Fee
Admitted 1 to 3 years	$50.00
Admitted more than 3 years	$100.00
Neither resides , nor practices nor is employed in Illinois	$25.00

The Court considered the recommendation and amended Rule 756 to conform to the Commission's recommendation. Subsequently, the Commission approved the Fiscal 1987 Budget which is attached as Appendix C of this Report.

REPORT ON RULE CHANGES

During 1986 the Illinois Supreme Court adopted a new Code of Judicial Conduct, effective January 1, 1987.

Supreme Court Rule 756 was amended to provide for an increase in the attorney registration fee.

Supreme Court Rule 773(b) was amended to clarify the situations in which an attorney is required to reimburse the Commission for costs.

Effective July 25, 1986 Commission Rules 2, 54, 101-106, 201 and 284 were amended. The revised Rules of the Supreme of Illinois and the Commission are contained in a booklet published by the Commission and available upon request.

To the Commissioners and Administrator of the Attorney Registration and Disciplinary Commission of the Supreme Court of Illinois
203 North Wabash Avenue
Chicago, Illinois 60601

Gentlemen:

We have examined the Financial Statements of the Attorney
Registration and Disciplinary Commission of the Supreme Court of Illinois for the year ended October 31, 1986.

SCOPE OF EXAMINATION

Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

ACCOUNTANTS' OPINION

In our opinion, the accompanying Financial Statements present fairly the financial position of the Attorney Registration and Disciplinary Commission of the Supreme Court of Illinois at October 31, 1986, and the results of its operations and the changes in its financial position for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Respectfully submitted,

Alexander X. Kuhn & Co.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

October 31, 1986

A. GENERAL PURPOSE DESCRIPTION

The Commission was appointed by the Illinois Supreme Court under Rules 751 through 756 of the Court effective February 1, 1973, and subsequent additional rules and amendments. The purpose of the Commission and the Office of the Administrator is to maintain the Master Roll of Attorneys and to investigate and prosecute complaints against Illinois attorneys whose conduct might tend to defeat the administration of justice or to bring the court or the legal profession into disrepute.

On April 21, 1977, the Illinois Supreme Court adopted Rule 730 effective May 1, 1977. The rule requires the registration of group legal service plans in which an attorney participates. The plans must be registered with the Attorney Registration and Disciplinary Commission on or before July 1 each year.

B. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The books and other financial records of the Commission are recorded on an accrued basis. The accounting year of the Commission is October 31, as established by a resolution by the Commissioners dated March 12, 1983.

Fixed assets are carried at cost less accumulated depreciation computed on a straight-line method over an estimated useful life of five to ten years. Leasehold improvements are amortized over the lease period.

The historical record of depreciating the computer and its components indicated a need for a change in the estimated useful life of those assets. Therefore, during the current period the estimated useful life of the computer and its components was changed from ten to five years.

C. 1986 UNCOLLECTED FEES

As of October 31, 1986, there were 1,352 attorneys unregistered and $32,120.00 in registration fees uncollected. Of the unregistered attorneys, 173 were not residents of Illinois, 648 were removed from the Master Roll, 132 were more than 75 years old, and 399 were unaccounted for by reason of death or a change of address without notification to the Commission. The $32,120.00 in uncollected registration fees are not carried as receivables since it cannot be determined that the amount is owed. A concerted effort was undertaken by the Administrator to determine the reasons for failure to register. Several registration applications were sent to each attorney. Telephone calls and personal visits are made throughout the state to determine whether the unregistered attorneys are engaged in the practice of law.

D. INVESTMENTS

All investment transactions are handled by the Trust Department of the Illinois National Bank of Springfield and are held in safekeeping at the bank.

E. COLLECTION OF FEES

The Commission is funded by an annual registration fee assessed against Illinois attorneys. The annual fee is sent directly to a lock box located at the U. S. Post Office in Springfield, Illinois. The box is under the sole supervision of the Illinois National Bank of Springfield. The contents of the box are accounted for solely by the bank and all monies are deposited to the Commission's account. An accounting for these funds is sent regularly to the Commission's computer department for processing and comparison to the registration and billing records. The system is test checked by our audit and the lock box system is also checked by the Internal Auditors of the bank and the National Bank Examiners.

F. LEASE AND MAINTENANCE COMMITMENTS

The Commission has the following major lease commitments existing as of October 31,

- Chicago Office - April 1, 1983 through March 31, 1988 (floors 19 and 20), October 1, 1984 through September 30, 1989 (18th floor). Present value of lease commitment $432,658.50. The Commission is also leasing on a month to month basis, storage space @ $577.50 per month.
- Springfield Office - November 1, 1985 through October 31, 1990, (Suite 330). Present value of lease commitment $194,818.56 plus possible escalations based on all operating expenses of building.
- Automobile Lease

1984 Olds Cutlass - April 12, 1984 through April 12, 1987 at $257.50 per month.

1986 Ford Wagon Aerostar - January 15, 1986 through January 15, 1990 at $343.66 per month.

1986 Olds Delta 88 - February 2, 1986 through February 2, 1990 at $299.00 per month.

Garage Space - $700.00 per month.

- Various rental and maintenance agreements on computer software, hardware and office equipment amounts to approximately $41,000.00 annually.

H. TAXABLE STATUS

On January 29, 1976, the Internal Revenue Service officially recognized the Commission as a tax exempt organization under Section 501(c) (6) of the Internal Revenue Code. Under the Letter of Determination the Commission is exempt from Federal income tax. However, it is required to annually file Form 990 (an information return) with the Internal Revenue Service. The Internal Revenue Service has examined the return for the year ended December 31, 1978, and made no changes.

I. EMPLOYEES' RETIREMENT PLAN AND TRUST

On October 15, 1977, the Commission established a Retirement Plan and Trust for the benefit of all qualified employees. The Plan and Trust was effective January 1, 1977 and required employees and Commission contributions.

Effective January 1, 1985 the Plan was amended and restated to improve retirement benefits in light of the decision of the Social Security Administration that employees of the Commission are not covered by Social Security benefits.

The amended and restated Retirement Plan has been filed with the Internal Revenue Service and the Commission has requested a Letter of Determination. The Internal Revenue Service had fully qualified the original Plan and has examined and approved returns for the period ended December 31, 1980.

J. MEDICARE REPLACEMENT RESERVE TRUST

On August 9, 1985 the Commission formed a Trust to replace the Medicare coverage lost by its employees when the Social Security Administration ruled the Commission was ineligible for benefits. The Federal Unemployment Insurance refunds were used to fund the trust and the Commission has determined to contribute an additional 4% of compensation for each eligible participant.

K. LITIGATION

Periodically the commission, staff, or members of the various boards are involved in lawsuits. Most suits challenge the authority of the Commission or seek injunctive relief or damages allegedly caused by disciplinary decisions. These cases have been handled by staff counsel.

The following cases are noteworthy.

The Chicago Bar Association, et al. v. Cronson, No. 82 L 50131 (Cir.Ct. Cook Co.). On July 26, 1982 the Chicago Bar Association filed suit in the Circuit Court of Cook County against the Commission, the State Board of Law Examiners and the Auditor General of the State of Illinois seeking declaratory review of the nature of the Commission and the State Board and of the authority of the Auditor General to audit the funds of those agencies. On March 4, 1984 the Commission was realigned as a party plaintiff. The suit is pending in the Circuit Court.

Adams v. Attorney Registration and Disciplinary Commission, 801 F.2d 968 (7th Cir.1986). On April 25, 1984 Robert J. Adams, Jr. and other attorneys filed a lawsuit in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois seeking to enjoin the Commission from enforcing Rule 2-103(b)(2) of the Illinois Code of Professional Responsibility to the extent it prohibited the mailing of written communications offering professional services to those known to need those services.

On August 15, 1985 Judge James B. Moran issued a preliminary injunction against the Commission. On September 18, 1986 the Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit upheld the preliminary injunction against the Commission. The matter is pending before the District Court.

Ettinger v. Rolewick, 140 Ill.App.3d 295, 488 N.E.2d 598 (1st Dist. 1986). On August 27, 1984 Michael D. Ettinger filed a complaint in the Circuit Court of Cook County seeking to enjoin the Commission from utilizing in disciplinary proceedings certain evidence in a federal criminal prosecution of him. The Commission challenged the jurisdiction of the circuit court. On October 16, 1984 the trial court entered an order finding it had jurisdiction but sustaining the Commission's motion to dismiss. Ettinger appealed the decision.

On January 7, 1986 the Appellate Court of Illinois reversed the trial court and held that the inherent nature of attorney disciplinary proceedings precluded the circuit court from asserting jurisdiction over the subject matter.

L. GROUP LEGAL SERVICE REGISTRATION FEE FUND

All registration fees received for group legal service plans have been segregated from all other funds of the Commission. Presently these monies are invested in a trust account at the Illinois National Bank, Springfield, Illinois.

M. DEFERRED FEES

The annual registration fee covers a period from January 1, to December 31. Since the Commission's fiscal year ends October 31, two months' fees are deferred at that date.
