RULES OF THE ATTORNEY REGISTRATION AND DISCIPLINARY COMMISSIONFor Disciplinary Proceedings
Under Illinois Supreme Court
Rules 701-777*Article I General*RULE 1 Preamble

It is the policy of the Commission that disciplinary and unauthorized practice of law matters be handled expeditiously, with due regard to the right of the respondent to have adequate time to prepare his defense. The courts, the public, the bar, and the respondents have a vital interest in an early determination of any charge which bears upon the fitness of an attorney to practice his profession or an allegation of unauthorized practice of law. The elimination of unnecessary delay was a major objective of the Court in creating the Commission and in establishing the office of Administrator. Implementation of this objective is one of the principal purposes of the following rules.

(Amended, December 7, 2011, effectively immediately.)

RULE 2 Definitions

As used in these rules:

(a) Misconduct. Misconduct is behavior of an attorney which violates the Illinois Rules of Professional Conduct.

(b) Charge. A charge is information which may constitute an allegation of misconduct by an attorney or an allegation of unauthorized practice of law.

(c) Chair. The Chair is a person designated by the Commission to serve as chairperson of an Inquiry Board panel or a Hearing Board panel.

(d) Respondent. A respondent is an attorney charged with misconduct or under investigation by the Administrator or a person, whether an individual, entity or association, charged with the unauthorized practice of law or under investigation under an allegation of the unauthorized practice of law.

(e) Complaining Witness. A complaining witness is a person who makes a charge of misconduct or an allegation of the unauthorized practice of law.

(f) Clerk. The Clerk of the Commission is the person designated by the Administrator to receive, keep and maintain the files, pleadings, records, documents, evidence and other papers of the various panels and boards related to the work of the Commission and its Boards.

(Amended, effective July 25, 1986; amended, effective April 15, 1994; Amended, December 7, 2011, effectively immediately; amended January 25, 2017, effective immediately.)

RULE 3 Construction

The masculine form of a word includes the feminine. Except for proper nouns, the singular form includes the plural and the plural the singular.

RULE 4 Term Limits

(a) General Rule. Commission appointments of board members shall be limited to nine consecutive annual terms, except as otherwise provided in this rule.

Com 5

(b) Applicability of Term Limits. Except as provided in paragraphs (c) and (d) of this rule, term limits apply to consecutive appointments of board members to the same position on the same board. An appointment to a different position or to a different board or an appointment following a break in service of at least one year shall be deemed to be the first appointment toward the nine consecutive appointment term limit for that position. The Inquiry Board, the Hearing Board, the Oversight Committee, the Client Protection Review Panel and any other body established by the Commission pursuant to these rules shall be deemed different boards. The positions of chair and of member of a panel of any of these bodies shall be deemed different. Term limits shall not affect an appointment that continues until further order pending the completion of the Commission's annual appointment process.

(c) Chairs of Hearing Board Panels. Commission appointments of Chairs of Hearing Board panels shall be limited to twenty annual terms.

(d) Implementation. The term limit provisions of this rule shall be implemented over a five year period, beginning with appointments for 2013, except for term limits set forth in paragraph c.

(Adopted, January 2, 2012, effective February 28, 2013; amended April 20, 2018, effective May 15, 2018.)

In his discretion, the Administrator may provide assistance at his office to persons desiring to make a charge and may furnish forms for that purpose. The Administrator is not required to investigate any charge which does not meet the requirements of this rule, although in his discretion he may do so.

(Amended, effective July 25, 1986; amended, effective April 15, 1994; Amended, December 7, 2011, effectively immediately.)

RULE 53 Duty of Attorneys

The Administrator may request the respondent, or any other attorney who may have knowledge of pertinent facts, to provide information, in writing, concerning the matter under investigation. RULE 54 Closure by Administrator

The notice shall be sent by regular mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the respondent at the address shown on the Master Roll, or if the respondent's name does not appear on the Master Roll, at his last known business address or residence address.

(Amended, effective Oct. 21, 1988; amended, effective May 1, 2001; Amended, December 7, 2011, effectively immediately.)

Article V The Review Board

RULE 301 Review of Hearing Board Report, Notice of Exceptions

(a) Method of Review. Every report of the Hearing Board is reviewable by the Review Board as of right.

(b) Time; Filing. Review is initiated by filing a Notice of Exceptions with the Clerk of the Commission within 21 days of service of the Hearing Board Report to the parties. The party who files a Notice of Exceptions first shall be considered the appellant. The appellee need not file a Notice of Exceptions to assert additional error but shall assert any such additional error within his brief.

(c) Form and Contents of Notice of Exceptions. The Notice of Exceptions shall bear the title and number of the matter, naming and designating the parties in the same manner as before the Hearing Board and adding the further designation “appellant” or “appellee” (e.g. respondent-appellant). The Notice of Exceptions shall be titled as such and specify the Hearing Board Report or portion thereof excepted to and the relief sought from the Review Board, as well as the signature and address of each appellant or his or her attorney.

(Amended, effective January 15, 1988; amended, effective February 2, 1994.)

RULE 302 Briefs

(a) Time. Unless the Review Board orders otherwise, the brief of the appellant shall be filed with the Clerk of the Commission no later than 35 days after the date that the Notice of Exceptions is due. Within 35 days from the due date of the appellant's brief, the appellee shall file a brief with the Clerk. Within 14 days from the due date of the appellee's brief, the appellant may file a reply brief. Should the appellee raise additional errors in his brief, the appellant's reply brief shall also address those errors, shall be designated as the appellant-cross-appellee's reply brief, and shall be filed within 14 days of the filing of the appellee's brief. The appellee may file a reply brief confined strictly to replying to the appellant's argument on the additional errors within 14 days after the due date of the appellant-cross-appellee's reply brief. If the brief of the appellee raises additional errors in his brief, the cover of the brief shall be captioned: Brief of Appellee. Cross Relief Requested. Should the Review Board allow a brief to be filed after the date it is due, the Review Board may extend the due date of any subsequent brief as necessary.

(b) Filing and Service. Each brief shall be filed with the Clerk of the Commission, with a notice of filing and proof of service. Briefs shall be served to the e-mail address(es) identified by the party's appearance, pleading, motion, or brief in the matter. If no email address is identified, briefs shall be served to the party's registered business address. Briefs shall not be served via the ARDC e-filing system.

(c) Extensions. The Review Board may upon the motion of a party extend the time to file a brief. The motion must be accompanied by a supporting affidavit showing the number of previous extensions granted and the reason for each extension. Such motions are not favored and will be allowed only in the most extreme and compelling circumstances. The motion shall be filed with the Clerk of the Commission. In addition, the party shall serve one copy upon the other party to review, in the same manner as prescribed in paragraph (b). A notice of filing with proof of service shall be filed with all motions.

(d) Page Limitations and Format Requirements. Unless authorized by the Review Board, the appellant's brief and the appellee's brief, excluding appendices, shall each be limited to 50 pages, and the reply brief shall be limited to 20 pages. Neither narrow margins nor any other device shall be employed to evade the page limitation. Footnotes, if any, shall be used sparingly. The text of all briefs must be double-spaced, except for headings, quotations, and footnotes. At least 12-point type must be used in the body of briefs, and at least 10-point type must be used for footnotes. A motion to authorize the filing of briefs in excess of the limitations of this rule shall be filed before the brief is due and shall state the maximum number of pages requested. Motions to allow additional pages are not favored, and the specific grounds establishing the necessity for excess pages shall be clearly set forth in an affidavit filed in support of the motion.

(e) Cover. The cover of each brief shall contain the number of the matter, the status of each party at the Review Board level (e.g. respondent-appellant, Administrator-appellee), the individual names and addresses of the attorneys (or of the party if he or she is appearing pro se) filing the brief, and if desired, of their law firm, shall also be stated. The colors of the covers of the documents shall be: appellant's brief or petition, white; appellee's brief or answer, light blue; appellant's reply brief, light yellow; appellee's reply brief, light red.

(f) Contents of Appellant's Brief. The appellant's brief shall contain the following parts in the order named:

(1) A summary statement, entitled "Points and Authorities," of the points argued and the authorities cited in the Argument. This shall consist of the headings of the points and subpoints as in the Argument, with the citation under each heading of the authorities relied upon or distinguished and a reference to the page of the brief on which each heading and each authority appear. Cases shall be cited as near as may be in the order of their importance.

(2) An introductory paragraph stating (i) the nature of the matter and of the recommendation appealed from, and (ii) whether any question is raised on the pleadings, and if so, the nature of the question.

(3) A statement of the legal issue or issues presented for review, without detail or citation of authorities.

(4) A Statement of Facts, which shall contain the facts necessary to an understanding of the case, stated accurately and fairly without argument or comment, and with appropriate reference to the pages of the record on appeal. Exhibits may be cited by reference to pages of the record on appeal or by exhibit number followed by the page number within the exhibit.

(5) Argument, which shall contain the contentions of the party and the reasons there for, with citation of the authorities and the pages of the record relied on. Evidence shall not be copied at length, but reference shall be made to the pages of the record on appeal where evidence may be found. Citation of numerous authorities in support of the same point is not favored. Points not argued are waived and shall not be raised in the reply brief or oral argument.

(6) A short conclusion stating the precise relief sought, followed by the names of counsel as on the cover.

(7) An appendix containing the Hearing Board Report, the Notice of Exceptions, an index of the record, and the full text of each Rule of Professional Conduct at issue and related Comments.

(g) Briefs of Appellee. The brief for the appellee and other parties shall conform to the foregoing requirements, except that items (f)(2), (f)(3), (f)(4), and (f)(7) of this rule need not be included except to the extent that the presentation by the appellant is deemed unsatisfactory.

(h) Reply Briefs. The reply brief, if any, shall be confined strictly to replying to arguments presented in the brief of the appellee and need only contain Argument.

(i) Nonconforming Briefs. The Review Board may strike any brief or portion thereof that does not conform to the Rules, or take any other action authorized by precedent of the Supreme Court or Appellate Court for enforcing the requirements pertaining to the form and content of briefs, including refusing to review arguments not supported by citation to the record or legal precedent.

(j) Failure to File. If the appellant fails to file a brief within the time set by this rule or any additional time which the Review Board allows, the Review Board shall strike the exceptions of that appellant and the matter shall proceed as if those exceptions had not been filed.

(Amended December 1, 1995, effective immediately; amended, effective May 31, 2005; amended June 12, 2009, effective January 1, 2010; amended April 16, 2010, effective July 1, 2010; amended June

RULE 303 Reserved

RULE 304 Oral Arguments

(a) Request; Waiver; Dispensing with Oral Argument. A party shall request oral argument by stating at the bottom of the cover page of the brief that oral argument is requested. If any party so requests and the Review Board grants oral arguments, all other parties may argue without an additional request. No party may argue unless a brief is filed as required by the rules. A party who has requested and been granted oral argument and who thereafter determines to waive oral argument shall promptly notify the Clerk of the Commission and the other party in writing no later than fourteen days before the date of the argument. Any party who has filed a brief without requesting oral argument may then request oral argument upon prompt notice to the Clerk and all other parties.

In determining whether to allow or require oral argument, the Review Board may consider whether oral argument would be necessary for consideration of the issues presented for review.

When oral argument is not requested, the matter shall be decided on the briefs unless the Review Board orders oral argument.

(b) Length. Unless the Review Board otherwise orders, each side shall argue for not more than 20 minutes, with an additional ten minutes rebuttal for the party with the right to close. The Review Board may grant additional time on motion filed with the Clerk of the Commission in advance of the date fixed for argument if it appears that additional time is necessary for the adequate presentation of the case. A party is not obliged to use all of the time allowed, and the Review Board may terminate the argument whenever in its judgment further argument is unnecessary.

(c) Reading Prohibited. Reading at length from the record, briefs, or authorities cited will not be permitted.

(d) Sequence and Manner of Calling Matters for Oral Argument. Matters shall be called for argument in accordance with procedures and policies established by the Commission.

There is established under the auspices of the Commission an Ethics Inquiry Program. The Administrator shall employ Ethics Inquiry Counsel, who shall respond to ethics inquiries.

RULE 602 Purpose of Program

The purpose of the program is to provide information to attorneys and other members of the public so that the inquirer may identify and determine the Rules of Conduct which apply to an attorney's actions. The goal of the program is to assist attorneys in conducting themselves within the bounds of the Illinois Rules of Professional Conduct, thereby enhancing the quality of representation provided by Illinois attorneys.

Ethics Inquiry Counsel shall provide general information and research assistance regarding ethics issues under Illinois law. Ethics Inquiry Counsel shall not provide legal advice or advisory opinions.
