- i. Respondent shall abstain from using any controlled substances unless prescribed by a physician. Respondent shall use prescribed controlled substances only as directed by the physician;
- j. Respondent shall report to the Administrator any lapse in his sobriety, and any usage of unprescribed controlled substances within seventy-two (72) hours of that usage;
- k. Respondent shall participate in a course of mental health treatment with a psychotherapist, who is a licensed M.D.

or Ph.D., such as a psychiatrist or a clinical psychologist (“the treating professional”), approved by the Administrator, at respondent’s expense, and respondent shall meet with the treating professional on a regular basis of not less than once per week, with the Administrator advised of any change in attendance deemed warranted by the treating professional;

- l. Respondent shall comply with all treatment recommendations of the treating professional;
- m. Respondent shall provide to each treating professional from whom he receives treatment an appropriate release authorizing and directing the treating professional to: (1) disclose to the Administrator, on at least a quarterly basis, information pertaining to the nature of and respondent’s compliance with any treatment plan established with respect to respondent’s condition; (2) promptly report to the Administrator any failure by respondent to comply with any part of an established treatment plan; and (3) respond to any inquiries by the Administrator regarding respondent’s treatment and compliance with any established treatment plan;
- n. Respondent shall notify the Administrator within fourteen (14) days of any change in the treating professional;
- o. Respondent shall, as required by the Administrator, submit to random substance testing by a qualified mental health professional or facility approved by the Administrator within eight (8) hours of receiving notice by the Administrator that he shall submit to the testing. Respondent shall provide to the professional or facility an appropriate release authorizing and directing that the results of the tests shall be reported to the Administrator. Respondent shall pay any and all costs of such testing;
- p. Respondent shall submit to an independent audit of his client trust account, conducted by an auditor approved by the Administrator, at respondent’s expense, six (6) months after the commencement of probation. Respondent and the Administrator shall each receive copies of the audit. This condition applies only during the period of probation. The audit shall also evaluate respondent’s maintenance of complete records of client trust accounts, required by Rule 1.15 of the Rules of Professional Conduct (2023), and respondent’s system for maintaining records, including the following:

- i. the preparation and maintenance of receipt and disbursement journals for all client trust accounts, containing a record of deposits and withdrawals from client trust accounts specifically identifying the date, source, and description of each item deposited, and date, payee, and purpose of each disbursement;
  - ii. the preparation and maintenance of contemporaneous ledger records for all client trust accounts showing for each separate trust client or beneficiary, the source of all funds deposited, the date of each deposit, the names of all persons for whom the funds are or were held, the amount of such funds, the dates, descriptions, and amounts of charges or withdrawals, and the names of all persons to whom such funds were disbursed;
  - iii. the maintenance of copies of all accountings to clients or third persons showing the disbursement of funds to them or on their behalf, along with copies of those portions of clients' files that are reasonably necessary for a complete understanding of the financial transactions pertaining to them;
  - iv. the maintenance of all client trust account checkbook registers, check stubs, bank statements, records of deposit, and checks or other records of debits;
  - v. the maintenance of copies of all retainer and compensation agreements with clients;
  - vi. the maintenance of copies of all bills rendered to clients for legal fees and expenses; and
  - vii. the preparation and maintenance of reconciliation reports of all client trust accounts, on at least a quarterly basis, including reconciliations of ledger balances with client trust account balances; and
- q. At least thirty (30) days prior to the start of the probationary term, respondent shall hire a professional individual or entity (“the bookkeeper”), approved by the Administrator, at respondent’s expense, to manage his law firm’s bookkeeping, including the bookkeeping relating to his client trust account and his business account. At least seven (7) days prior to the start of the probationary term, and throughout the period of probation, the bookkeeper shall manage the law firm’s bookkeeping. Respondent shall provide notice to the Administrator of any change in the bookkeeper within fourteen (14) days of the change, and any substitute bookkeeper must be approved by the Administrator. Respondent shall authorize and direct the bookkeeper to provide a report in writing to the Administrator no less than every three (3) months regarding the nature of respondent’s bookkeeping, the work being done by the bookkeeper, and the bookkeeper’s general appraisal of respondent’s bookkeeping practices and procedures. This condition applies only during the period of probation;

- r. During the one (1) year period of probation, respondent shall provide 150 hours of community service, without charge, through one or more organizations approved by the Administrator. Respondent is to provide pro bono legal services to indigent individuals, as approved by the Administrator, in order to satisfy this condition. Respondent shall itemize the time spent on community service in the quarterly reports submitted to the Administrator. This condition applies only during the period of probation;
- s. If respondent is found to have violated any of the conditions, the stay of the three (3) year suspension, and until further order by the Court, shall be revoked. The remaining period of the three (3) year suspension and until further order of the Court shall continue as a suspension, which shall commence on the date of the determination that any condition has been violated, and shall continue until further order of the Court; and
- t. If respondent successfully completes all of the conditions of his probation, his suspension and probation shall terminate without further order of the Court.
